January 2021

NEW YEAR, NEW ADVENTURES TO SAFELY EMBARK UPON

And just like that it's 2021! I don't know about you, but this number sounds pretty fictional to me 😊

I hope you had a chance to refresh and recharge over the holiday – even if they looked and felt a little different this year. How did you spend your holiday?

We had our first successful Staycation, which can be extra tough as Entrepreneurs. The key for us was to change up the routine and force relaxation upon ourselves. We slept in, started every day with a coffee in the hot tub (a true blessing this year) and went hiking around Summerside and in and around London. I even kept up with my fitness regime with Beachbody on Demand at home...mostly 😊

We played games as a family and connected with family and friends virtually in hopes that by doing our part, this will all be over and we can go back to visits and HUGS! Boy do I miss hugs.

New Year's Eve, always a pretty big deal for us, was relaxing and fun, with Team Canada playing excellently, a delicious take out meal from The Keg and an online concert by Dwayne Gretzky until the wee hours! We tried to make it until the end but both fell asleep long before it was over lol.

Here's to an amazing and safe January and, hopefully, a virtual visit or coffee soon 😊

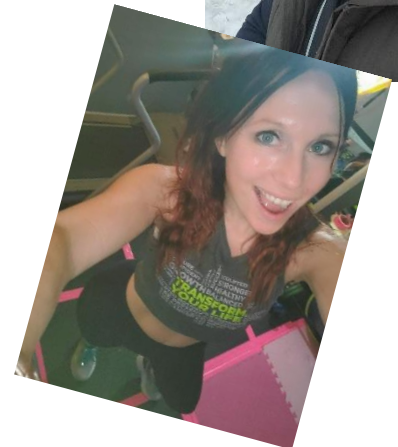

P.S. For all of you entrepreneurs, I am speaking at the Comeback Champion Virtual Summit in February. If you want FREE tickets to the, please let me know!

Your friend in the business,
