FEBRUARY: MY FAVOURITE MONTH

Happy February!! As most of you know, I love every month of the year, but February happens to be my favourite one!

Why? Well... firstly, it's my birthday month! Exactly 6 days before Valentine's Day, many moons ago, I showed up on a cold and wintry Sunday afternoon. This might be why I love Groundhog Day so much: we get to find out how many weeks it will be until it's warm outside again! Then there is the fun of Valentine's Day, where my amazing Brett Lucier and I get to celebrate our love a little extra – plus I LOVE giving out heart shaped chocolates to my family, clients, and colleagues and friends!

It has already been an eventful year for us! We rang in the New Year much like many of our friends and family – at home! We had dinner from The Keg and watched Dwayne Gretzky's live New Years' Concert with proceeds going to CAMH – we danced and sang and had a great time in our living room.

A week later, we headed off to our first vacation outside of the country in 2 years: the Mayan Riviera in Mexico. We felt VERY out of practice! We were incredibly careful and kept to ourselves for the most part, in an effort to remain Covid free. We were unsuccessful LOL. I got Covid at the resort, unfortunately (or on the plane??) and had to quarantine in a hotel room at the resort for 11 days before I was cleared to come back to Canada.

Thankful for the ability to work remotely and for my assistant and my colleagues for being able to help me - and for fitness apps, like Peloton, which helped me to workout in the room. Brett had to go home to Canada, so we stayed in constant contact and even had a few date nights! The resort, Bahia Principe Akumal, was amazing as well and took excellent care of me in the circumstances. We do not regret our decision to travel, and already look forward to going back.

While we were in Mexico, our NEPHEW, Lex, was born! We are so excited as a family! We're looking forward to longer days, warmer afternoons and spending time with our family in between the busy fun of #RealtorLife. Here's to a wonderful February – and 5 weeks 'til Spring!

Also, Coming into February, I found out that through your support, I won the London Community Votes Platinum Award for Best Realtor® - exciting! Thank you!!!

Your friend in the business,
